By-Law 3.00 Scheduling

B-3.01 Authority:

The responsibility for, and jurisdiction over, the enforcement of this section shall be vested in the Chairperson the Scheduling Committee. (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-3.02 Ice Time:

The Home team must provide sufficient ice time for all scheduled League games.

B-3.03 Playoff Schedule:

The scheduling of regular season and playoff games shall be the responsibility of the Scheduling Committee, and a "Home and Home" schedule be implemented in the playoffs whenever possible. (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-3.04 Stoppage of Game:

In the event that a regular season or playoff game not be played to a conclusion for reasons termed an "Act of God" which shall also include storms and rink facility problems, or by reason of termination of ice time or any other unforeseen problem, the Referee shall suspend the game at that point and the game shall be continued at a later date from that point on the game clock. Only players who were in the game at the point of delay will be allowed to continue play, and playoff games shall be played to conclusion in accordance with the HC Rule Book. (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-3.05 Committee Decides:

Any adjustments to the scheduling of games, regular or play-off, or any decisions as to whether or not to "call" a game because of adverse weather, absence of officials, rink facility problems, shall be made by the Chairman of the Scheduling Committee or in his absence, by the President, which decision shall be final and binding.

B-3.06 Postponements:

Any team requesting to postpone a game for reasons other those addressed in B-3.04 and B-3.05, above must have the approval of the Chairperson of the Scheduling Committee and the consent of the other team involved at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the time scheduled for the commencement of that game. (Passed May, 2015).

B-3.07

Makeup Games:

In no event shall a game postponed in accordance with B-3.06, above be rescheduled for a time and date later than two (2) weeks subsequent to the original time and date scheduled for the commencement of that game, and, unless for reasons addressed in B-3.04 and B-3.05 above, if the game is not played within that two week period, the home team shall be deemed to forfeit the game as if in accordance with B-3.08 and B-3.09, below. (Passed Sept. 8, 2002).

B-3.08

Forfeitures:

If any member team fails to ice a team consisting a minimum of eleven (11) “qualified” players at the beginning of the game, including only one goaltender, the game shall not be played and will be deemed forfeiture, and awarded to the opposing team. No player game stats will be issued on a forfeiture game but the opposing team will get two (2) points or win and the game will follow Hockey Canada Rule Book – Rule 10.14. (Passed May, 2015).

B-3.09

Penalties:

A team forfeiting a game under B-3.08 shall:

- (a) In the case of a first forfeiture, be fined four hundred dollars ($400.00).
- (b) In the case of a second forfeiture, be fined five hundred dollars ($500.00).
- (c) In the case of a third forfeiture, be immediately suspended from the League;

And

All fines levied must be paid to the League prior to that team’s next regularly scheduled games. In appropriate circumstances, the League may elect to apply the fine so as to compensate the opponent, if that opponent is the home team, for loss of ice time arising from the forfeiture as follows:

- (a) A sum of $300.00 shall be paid to each qualifying opponent home team if there are three forfeitures;
- (b) A sum of $400.00 shall be paid to each qualifying home team if there are one or more forfeitures by one or more team; and
- (c) A sum of $700.00 shall be paid to the qualifying home team if there are two forfeitures only by the same forfeiting team. (Amended June 15, 2005).

B-3.10

Trades Invalid:

- (a) in the event that a team is suspended from the League in accordance with the by-laws B-3.08 and B-3.09 any player(s) trades or transferred following the game in which that team records its third forfeiture shall be invalidated and shall be deemed null and void; or (Passed Oct. 2004)
- (b) in the event a team notifies the League of its intention to voluntary withdrawal from the League, any player(s) trades or transferred by that team following its last game played shall be invalidated and shall be deemed null and void; (Passed Oct. 2004);
- (c) The players so named to be traded or transferred in (a) or (b) above shall remain a member of the suspended or withdrawing team until a dispersal draft is held in relation to that team; (Passed Oct. 2004).
- (d) For the purposes of this By-Law, a player shall be deemed to have been transferred to his new team as of the date he participates in his first game with the other team, and not the date the trade is alleged to have taken place; (Proposed amendments May 2002).
- (e) Any player trade or transfer must comply with HC Rule H 4(a), (b) and (c). (New May 2002). (Amended and passed Sept. 8, 2002).
- (f) Any trades or transactions from a team that is leaving the League within a thirty (30) day period of prior given notice of a defunct team shall become null and void.

B-3.11

Suspension:

Any team withdrawing from play, or suspended from play, after the start of the playing season shall not re-enter competition during that season or during the following season unless permitted to do so by the majority of the voting delegates, including a majority of the Executive Committee at an Annual General Meeting. (Proposed renumbering of B-7, May 2002).

B-3.12

Completion of Playoffs:

The Chairman of the Scheduling Committee shall ensure that the League Playoffs are completed and a Championship Team declared, prior to Provincial Junior Championship competition by HNL. (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-3.13

Game Officials:

The Scheduling Committee Chair shall be responsible to arrange for game officials (Referee and Linesmen) for each game.

- B-3.14 Minor Officials:
Unless otherwise arranged through the League, the home team shall be responsible for the arrangement of minor officials for each game. (Passed Sept. 2000).
- B-3.15 Goal Judges – Deleted:
Goal judges shall be mandatory in playoff competition and shall be arranged in accordance with B-3.14 above, with the other minor officials. (Passed Sept. 2000) (Deleted May 10, 2006).
- B-3.16 Game Reports:
A copy of every game report from each regular season and playoff game shall be forwarded to the Director of Statistics and Rules by the home team within twelve (12) hours after the completion of the game, by facsimile or by e-mail if possible, with the original to follow by hand delivery for the purpose of:
- (a) The recording of team and individual player statistics;
 - (b) determining whether there has been any infraction under By-Law 4.00 which would attract a suspension, or for the review of the Executive Committee in the event disciplinary action is otherwise required against a team or team member;
 - (c) Any team who fails to comply with this By-Law shall be assessed a fine of fifty dollars ($50.00) payable upon notification thereof. (Passed Sept. 2000).
- B-3.17 No exhibition game shall be sanctioned without the approval of the President or Vice President of the League and shall follow the procedure of the League and all players must be registered with the said team.

By-Law 4.00 League Rules

- B-4.01 Jurisdiction:
The responsibility for ensuring that these Rules and Regulations are employed and strictly enforced shall be the responsibility of the President acting as Chairman of the Executive Committee.
- B-4.02 Games HC Rules:
All hockey rules listed in the Official Hockey Rules Book of HC shall apply directly to games played under the jurisdiction of this League.
- B-4.03 Criteria:

All games played by member teams, and the qualifications of all persons completing or otherwise participating in such games as a member of a member team in the League shall be in conformity with the Constitution and By-Laws of the League. (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-4.04 Game Format:

Games shall consist of three twenty-minute periods. All time played shall be “stop” time.

B-4.05 Overtime:

(a) In regular season games, there shall be a five (5) minute sudden death overtime period played in all games that are tied at the end of the third period. (Passed Sept. 2000).

(b) In games where a five (5) minute overtime sudden death overtime period is played both teams will use 3 on 3 skaters, unless otherwise dictated by penalties. In which case the Referee shall apply the normal rule as used by Professional Hockey if still tied then a 5 man shoot out until a winner is declared.

B-4.06 Points:

(a) A team shall be awarded two points for a win during regulation time.

(b) Both teams shall be awarded a single point for a tie during regulation time including overtime, plus

(c) A team winning in overtime shall be awarded an extra point. (Passed June 12, 2002).

(d) If still tied at the conclusion of a 5 man shootout. Teams will continue through the lineup with previous 5 shooters going to the end of the lineup until a goal is scored. (New)

Regular Season Play

B-4.07 Divisions:

In seasons during which the League comprises of eight or more member teams, the League shall, to the extent practicable, be divided into two divisions. The two divisions should, as far as is practicable, contain an equal number of teams. (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-4.08 Determining Standings:

The placement of teams shall be determined by the number of points accumulated by each team in the regular schedule; the higher position tie shall be broken by the following procedure in order:

- (a) The higher position will be awarded to the team with the most games won.
- (b) in the event that two or more teams have an equal number of wins, the second tie breaker shall favor the team which has won the most points head to head in the regular season against the other teams(s) with which it is tied;
- (c) in the event that the tie is not broken by (a) or (b), above, the third tie-breaker shall favor the team with the best goals average ratio, calculated as follows, (total goals for plus total goals against divided into goals for, calculated to four decimal points), with the higher ratio to prevail;
- (d) In the event that the tie is not broken by any of the means above, the higher position is to go be determined by a single head to head game at a rink determined by the Executive Committee. (Passed June 12, 2002).

Playoffs Competition

B-4.09 Playoff Eligibility:

The top eight (8) teams at the end of the regular schedule shall enter into a “play-off” series to declare a Championship team. The scheduling of the quarter-finals, semi-finals and final play-off series shall be the responsibility of the Scheduling Committee. A “HOME” AND “HOME” schedule shall be implemented where possible. (Amended Sept. 1, 1999)

B-4.10 Playoff Rounds:

The play-offs shall be divided into quarter final, semi final and final rounds. (Amended Sept. 1, 1999).

B-4.11 Quarterfinals:

(a) The quarter finals shall be the “Best of Five” with;

Series “A” between the first place team overall in the regular season and eighth place team overall;

Series “B” between the second place team overall and the seventh place team overall;

Series “C” between the third place team overall and the sixth place team overall;

Series "D" between the fourth place team overall and the fifth place team overall. (Amended May 2000).

B-4.12 Semifinals:

The semi-finals shall be a "Best of Seven" series with

Series "E" between the team advancing from the quarter finals with the highest standing in the regular schedule versus the team advancing from the quarter-finals which had the lowest standing in the regular schedule, and with

Series "F" between the other two teams advancing from the quarterfinal series. (Passed Sept. 8, 2002).

B-4.13 Finals:

The Final Round shall be a best of seven, known as Series "G" between the two teams advancing from each semi-final series. (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-4.14 Home Ice:

To determine "HOME" ice the following will apply:

- (a) In series "A" the first place team shall have "Home" ice advantage;
- (b) In series "B" the second place team shall have "Home" ice advantage;
- (c) In series "C" the third place team shall have "Home" ice advantage;
- (d) In series "D" the fourth place team shall have "Home" ice advantage;
- (e) In series "E" the team with the highest standing shall have "Home" ice advantage;
- (f) In series "F" the team with the higher standing in the regular schedule shall have "Home" ice advantage?
- (g) In series "G" the team with the higher standing in the regular schedule shall have "Home" ice advantage. (Amended Sept. 2000).

B-4.15 Playoff Overtime:

If the score is tied at the end of the regulation play during play-off competition, sudden death overtime shall be played in accordance with the overtime rule as per the HC Official Hockey Rules. (Passed Sept. 2000)

Provincial or Inter-Provincial Competition

B-4.16 League Representative:

The Championship team declared shall be the League Representative in Provincial or Inter-Provincial Championship Competition and shall have the support of the League when it so competes. (Passed as amended June 2002).

B-4.17 Alternative Representative:

Should the Championship team not be able to enter into Provincial or Inter-Provincial competition the other Finalist in the League Playoffs shall have the opportunity to compete in such competition as the League Representative, upon the approval of the Executive Committee? (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-4.18 Multiple Representatives:

In seasons where there are two divisions and the HNL permits a representative from each Division within the League, and the HNL does not enact a selection formula for the representative, or otherwise decides to adopt the criteria used by the League, the League nominees shall be as follows:

- (a) The President's Cup Champion shall represent its Division and the League overall;
- (b) The team from the other Division, which has accumulated the highest number of wins in the playoffs, shall be the representative from the other Division. In the case where two teams from the same Division have accumulated the same number of wins in the playoffs, the tie breaker shall be as follows:

The team with the better win-loss percentage in the play-offs shall prevail;

- (c) In the event that two teams have the same win-loss percentage, the team with the better record in the regular season shall be the nominee and the provisions in B-4.08 shall be applied to break a tie in the regular season standing, if need be.

Infractions

B-4.19 Ineligible Players:

Teams may continue to protect and use up to twenty-five (25) players after January 10th. For the purpose of completing the regular schedule, League play-offs and Provincial Championships. A team advancing from the League to Inter-Provincial completion will only be entitled to use the number of players specified in B-6.09, above, or such greater or lesser number as the HC or HNL Regulations may allow from time to time. (Passed Sept. 2002).

B-6.13

Mandatory Release:

- (a) A carded player whose name does not appear on a Protected List in accordance with B-6.08 and B-6.09 except as permitted under B-7.03 and B-7.04 at any time after the first protected list is presented to the Registrar each year shall not be traded or transferred by the last team holding his card until his name is added to that team's protected list. (Passed June 15, 2005).
- (b) A non-carded player whose name will not be added to the protected list of the team holding the rights to sign him to a HC Player Card shall not be traded or transferred until his name is added to the protected list of his aligned team. (Passed June 15, 2005).
- (c) A player who now wishes to return to playing hockey must be placed on the protected list of the team holding his card, if that team has a player card to re-sign that player, or he must be given his release immediately if requested. (Amended and passed Sept. 8, 2000).

B-6.14

Replacing Players:

No team shall maintain a number of players on its protects list in excess of the prescribed maximum in B-6.09 above, and to the extent that adding a player or players would cause that team to exceed the maximum allowed number, that team must release one (1) player before each new player is added. (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-6.15

Suspended Players:

A suspended player shall not be released by his team during the playing season until such time as the suspension has been fully served. (See H5 of the HC Constitution and By-Laws Regulations).

B-6.16

Over age Players:

A member team may protect up to a maximum of six (6) over age players provided that:

- (a) The over age player was protected by that member team at the end of the previous season, or:

- (b) Was transferred to that team in accordance with League By-Laws, and;
- (C) is, in all other respects, considered to be an over age player by the HC Regulations and By-Laws. (Passed Sept. 8, 2002).
- (d) Must advise the League Registrar of the names of their six (6) overage players to be completed by three (3) days prior to the first draft of each year and all remaining overage players will be released into the draft and cannot be added at the table.

B-6.17 Unprotected Players:

An unprotected over age player may not be signed by any team other than the team entitled to protect him as per B-16.6, unless through the auspices of an over age draft if the League makes such provisions in any given season. (Passed Sept. 8, 2000).

Trades and Transfers

B-6.18 Trade Validity:

The trade or transfer of a player within the League from one team to another must be made in compliance with the League Constitution and By-Laws and also in compliance with HC Constitution and By-Laws and Regulations. (Amended Sept. 22, 2002).

B-6.19 Traded Players:

A player who desire and/or agrees to transfer to another team within the League, and is granted his release for that purpose becomes automatically added to the protected list of the team to which he had agreed to be transferred, and shall not be permitted to register with another team in the League, nor shall any other member team be permitted to add that player to their protected list. (Amended Sept. 22, 2002).

B-6.20 League Approval:

The Secretary-Registrar must be immediately notified when a player is released for the purpose of transfer from one team to another, and the player(s) and teams involved in the transfer must be identified, which notice shall be in writing to the Registrar but verbal notification shall be initially accepted immediately following the transaction upon condition that written notice follows at the earliest possible opportunity.

B-6.21 Trade of Draft Choice:

A player, who:

- (a) is selected in the First or Second Draft and who refuses to sign with the team drafting him, may be transferred to another team with which he agrees to play, but otherwise must obtain a letter of release from the team drafting him before being allowed to enter his name into future Drafts. (Amended AGM May 1997.) (Proposed Re-wording of B-6.14 May 2002).
- (b) is selected in the Third Draft, and who refuses to sign with the member team drafting him, will not be permitted to play with another team for the remainder of the season and, will not be permitted to play during the following season unless the applicable provisions of (a) above, are following. (Passed Sept. 2000).

B-7.16 Deemed Protected:

- (a) A player who is selected during a Draft, is deemed to be protected, and must immediately be placed on the Protected List of the team drafting him.

Exception: If the player drafted refuses to sign a player card with the team drafting him his name may be left off future protected lists of that team following the twenty-one (21) day time period as per B-7.17. However the team shall retain the right to sign that player if an when he agrees to play for that team provided that by adding his name to the protected list it will not exceed the maximum number permitted as per B-6.09. The teams shall also retain the right to trade or transfer him to another team at any time prior to the January 10 cut-down date after the twenty-one (21) days waiting period without having to place his name on a protected list. (Passed June 5, 2005).

- (b) an aligned player who is chosen by his aligned team but who refuses to sign a player card with the aligned team shall not be allowed to enter his name into a draft until he first signs a player card and plays not less than one (1) year with this aligned team or a lesser length of time if the team chooses to give him a release or to trade or transfer him to another team. During his year with the aligned team he must play not less than 75% of available games unless he is sick, injured or is prevented from playing due to other extenuating circumstances. After one year he may decide to remain with the aligned team or if he requests the aligned team must agree to either trade or transfer him to a team of his choice or he must be given a release to enter the draft. (Passed June 5, 2005).

B-7.17 Team Refusal to Sign:

- (a) should a team refuse to sign a player within twenty-one (21) days of selecting that player in a Draft, then that team will lose the protected right to sign that player and that player automatically become eligible to enter his name into the following Draft. Exception:” See (b) below. (Amended May 1997).
- (b) to maintain the “rights” to a player not signed within twenty-one(21) days of being selected in a Draft, written confirmation shall be provided to the Secretary-Registrar on or before the next scheduled Draft to show the action taken to sign the said player. (Passed May 2000).

NOTE: It is intended that the action taken will show the team tried to sign the player and that the player refused to sign with that team

B-7.18 Minor Age Players:

In order to be eligible to enter a Draft, and sign a HC Junior Player Card, a Minor age player must:

- (a) Obtain a release from the Minor Hockey Association with which he was a member of during the previous season, and
- (b) A letter of consent from his parents or legal guardian granting permission for that player to sign a HC Junior Player Card. (Amended May 1995).

B-7.19 Draft Schedule:

The schedule for Draft sessions during each season shall be as follows:

- (a) First Draft – not less than seven (7) days prior to the official opening date of the season.
- (b) Second Draft – not less than forty five (45) and not more than sixty (60) days after First Draft.
- (c) Third Draft – first Saturday after January 10th. But not less than five (5) days following January 10. (Amended AGM May 1997).

B-7.20 Selection Order:

The following shall govern the order of selections for each Draft:

- (a) First Draft – the teams shall draft in reverse order of placement in which they finished the regular schedule of the previous season but an expansion team shall automatically draft in first position, and in the event that there is more than on expansion teams, the expansion teams shall draft in the first positions with the order determined by the toss of a coin;

- (b) Subsequent Drafts – the teams shall draft in the reverse order of place in which they stand as of the date of the draft, which order of placement, shall apply for the purpose of this draft session only, shall be determined by the number of points a team has accumulated divided by the number of potential points it could have obtained to that point in the schedule for games played, with the highest percentage deemed to be the highest placing team, and so on, as the case may be. In the event of a tie, the first tie breaker shall favour the team with the lower winning percentage, and the second tie breaker shall determine by toss of a coin. (Amended May 2000).

B-7.21 Written Notice:

The Secretary-Registrar must receive written confirmation signed by both teams, of any agreement reached involving the trade or transfer of a draft position, and such confirmation must identify the exact Draft Round and Session in which the transfer is to take place. (Passed Sept. 22, 2002).

B-7.22 Enforcement:

The transfer of any Draft position must be complied with and carried out during the Draft Round and Session identified in the terms of the transfer and any team which fails to adhere to an agreement so reached shall forfeit their right to make any further selections in that Draft Session, and the matter shall be further dealt with by the Executive Committee. A team, who fails to adhere to an agreement reached with another team, to transfer a Draft selection position, will forfeit their right to compete further in that Draft Session. The Executive Committee may then deal with the matter under the guidelines of A-6.03 and B-5.07.

B-7.23 Effect of Selection:

A player selected by a member team becomes the property to that team, and unless the team loses its rights to that player under B-7.17 the team maintains rights to that player until he is released or transferred. (Amended Sept. 22, 2002).

B-7.24 Time Allowed:

To make a Draft selection each team will be allowed five (5) minutes, except each team will be allowed one(1) ten minute (1) timeout during a Draft. (Passed May 2000).

Over Age Draft

B-7.50 Over age Players:

B-7.51 Over age Drafts Per Season:

The League shall hold an over age draft prior to each of the three regular Drafts each season if a player application has been received. (Passed Oct. 2004).

B-7.52 Eligibility of Teams:

In seasons where the League determines it desirable to conduct an over age draft of those players not protected by the eligible member teams in B-6.16 and B-6.17, each team shall be permitted to participate in the over age Draft unless prohibited by this By-Laws. (Previously amended Nov. 2004).

B-7.53 Number of Over Age Players Allowed:

Each team may sign up to four (4) over age players at any one time in accordance with the HC Regulations, (B) Competition (3). Note: Teams are currently allowed to sign up to six (6) over age players as permitted by HNL 2004.

B-7.54 Entitlement:

A chosen over age player is deemed the “property” of his team from the previous season, in accordance with HC Regulations. (Passed May 2000).

B-7.55 Permission to Transfer:

A team shall be permitted to transfer a signed over age player to another team for a pick in any regular player draft up to December 1. (Passed May 2000).

B-7.56 Unsigned Over Age Players:

(a) An over age player who is not signed or not chosen to be signed to a HC Player protected list by the team holding his player rights from the previous season shall be required to enter his name into the over age draft before he will be permitted to play for another member team. (Passed May 2000).

(b) An over age player who is not signed or who will not be signed to a HC player protected list by the team holding his playing rights from the previous season shall not be permitted to be traded or transferred to another team unless the player(s) received as compensation is/are placed on the protected list of the receiving team. (New May 7, 2007).

B-7.57 Player Notification:

A protected player from the previous season, who be over age for the current season, shall be informed not less than five days (5) preceding the Over Age Draft that he will not be protected and is free to enter his name into the Over Age Draft. (Passed May 2000).

B-7.58 Over Age Free Agent:

An over age player who enters his name into a Draft and whose name is left on the table at the conclusion of that Draft will be considered a "Free Agent" and will be free to sign with any team in the League. (Passed May 2000).

B-7.59 Order of Selection:

In an Over Age Draft, the following shall govern the order of selections for each Draft:

- (a) First Draft – the teams shall draft in the reverse order of placement in which they finished the regular schedule of the previous season but an expansion team shall automatically draft in first position, and in the even that there is more than on expansion team, the expansion teams shall draft in the first positons with the order determined by the toss of a coin;
- (b) Subsequent Drafts – the teams shall draft in the reverse order of placement in which they stands as of the date of the draft, which order of placement, shall apply for the purpose of this draft session only, shall be determined by the number of points a team has accumulated divided by the number of potential points it could have obtained to that point in the schedule for games played, with the highest percentage deemed to be the highest placing team, and son, as the case may be. In the event of a tie, the first tie breaker shall favour the team with the lower winning percentage, and the second tie breaker shall be determined by the toss of a coin. (Passed Oct. 2004).
